EMBARK TO HOST EMBARK DAY ON SEPTEMBER 22 AHEAD OF NASDAQ LISTING

SAN FRANCISCO – September 9, 2021 – Embark Trucks (“Embark” or “the company”), a leading developer of self-driving software for the trucking industry, today announced it will host Embark Day on September 22, 2021 at its San Francisco headquarters. Embark Day will bring together a variety of constituents including investors, media, and equity research analysts for a deep dive into the company’s technology, business, and strategy. Embark Day will take place ahead of the company’s planned listing on Nasdaq, following the completion of its previously announced business combination with Northern Genesis Acquisition Corp. II (NYSE: NGAB) (“Northern Genesis 2”).

At the investor-focused event, members of Embark’s leadership team – including co-founder and CEO Alex Rodrigues and CFO Richard Hawwa – will provide attendees with an update on Embark since the announcement of the definitive business combination agreement with Northern Genesis 2 on June 23, 2021, as well as feature additional members of the Embark team during the following sessions:

- An Open House with the Embark Team, including co-founder and CTO Brandon Moak and other industry-leading experts in Engineering, Operations, Partnerships, and Policy
- The opportunity to experience Embark’s technology first-hand and ride in an Embark-equipped self-driving truck at Embark’s Oakland Transfer Point site
- A detailed business update from CEO Alex Rodrigues and CFO Richard Hawwa
- An in-depth look at Embark’s differentiated go-to market partnership strategy
- Insight from existing Embark investor and Partner and Head of Growth at Sequoia Capital, Pat Grady
- A fireside chat with the Honorable Elaine Chao, Former U.S. Secretary of Transportation and Labor
- More exciting developments to be announced on Embark Day

Please email investorrelations@embarktrucks.com if you are interested in attending or learning more.

Forward-Looking Statements

This press release includes “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the “safe harbor” provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Embark’s and Northern Genesis 2’s actual results may differ from their expectations, estimates and projections and consequently, you should not rely on these forward-looking statements as predictions of future events. Words such as “expect,” “estimate,” “project,” “budget,” “forecast,” “anticipate,” “intend,” “plan,” “may,” “will,” “could,” “should,” “believes,” “predicts,” “potential,” “continue,” and similar expressions are intended to identify such forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements include, without limitation, Embark’s and Northern Genesis 2’s expectations with respect to future performance. These forward-looking statements also involve significant risks and uncertainties that could cause the actual results to differ materially from the expected results. Factors that may cause such differences include, but are not limited to: (1) the outcome of any legal proceedings that may be instituted in connection with any proposed business combination; (2) the inability to complete any proposed business combination in a timely manner or at all; (3) delays in obtaining, adverse conditions contained in, or the inability to obtain necessary regulatory approvals or complete regulatory reviews required to complete any proposed business combination; (4) the risk that the business combination may not be completed by Northern Genesis 2 business combination deadline and the potential failure to obtain an extension of the business combination deadline if sought; (5) the failure to satisfy the conditions to the consummation of the transaction, including the adoption of the agreement and plan of merger by the stockholders of Northern Genesis 2 and Embark and the satisfaction of the minimum trust account amount following redemptions by Northern Genesis 2’s public stockholders; (6) the lack of a third party valuation in determining whether or not to pursue the proposed business combination; (7) the risk that any proposed business combination disrupts current plans and operations and/or the impact that the announcement of the proposed business combination may have on Embark’s business relationships; (8) the inability to recognize the anticipated benefits of any proposed business combination, which may be affected by, among other things, competition, the ability of the combined company to grow and manage growth profitably, maintain relationships with customers and suppliers and retain key employees; (9) costs related to the any proposed business combination; (10) changes in the applicable laws or regulations; (11) volatility in the price of Northern Genesis 2’s securities due to a variety of factors, including changes in the competitive and highly regulated industries in which Embark plans to operate, variations in performance across competitors, changes in laws and regulations affecting Embark’s business and changes in the combined capital structure; (12) the possibility that Embark or Northern Genesis 2 may be adversely affected by other economic, business, and/or competitive factors; (13) the impact of the global COVID-19 pandemic; and (14) other risks and uncertainties separately provided to you and indicated from time to time described in filings and potential filings by Embark and Northern Genesis 2 with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”), including those discussed in Northern Genesis 2’s Annual Report Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2020 (“Form 10-K”) and Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2021 and those that are expected to be included in the registration statement on Form S-4 and proxy statement/prospectus discussed below and other documents filed by Northern Genesis 2 from time to time. These filings identify and address other important risks and uncertainties that could cause actual events and results to differ materially from those contained in the forward-looking statements. Embark and Northern Genesis 2 caution that the foregoing list of factors is not exhaustive and not to place undue reliance upon any forward-looking statements, including projections, which speak only as of the date made. Embark and Northern Genesis 2 undertake no obligation to and accepts no obligation to release publicly any updates or revisions to any forward-looking statements to reflect any change in its expectations or any change in events, conditions or circumstances on which any such statement is based.

Additional Information About the Proposed Transactions and Where to Find It

The proposed transactions will be submitted to stockholders of Northern Genesis 2 for their consideration. Northern Genesis 2 has filed a registration statement on Form S-4 (the "Registration Statement") with the SEC which includes a preliminary proxy statement to be distributed to Northern Genesis 2's stockholders in connection with Northern Genesis 2's solicitation for proxies for the vote by Northern Genesis 2's stockholders in connection with the proposed transactions and other matters as described in the Registration Statement, as well as the preliminary prospectus relating to the offer of the securities to be issued to Embark's shareholders in connection with the completion of the proposed merger. After the Registration Statement has been declared effective, Northern Genesis 2 will mail a definitive proxy statement and other relevant documents to its stockholders as of the record date established for voting on the proposed transactions. Northern Genesis 2's stockholders and other interested persons are advised to read the preliminary proxy statement/prospectus and any amendments thereto and, once available, the definitive proxy statement/prospectus, in connection with Northern Genesis 2's solicitation of proxies for its special meeting of stockholders to be held to approve, among other things, the proposed business combination, because these documents will contain important information about Northern Genesis 2, Embark and the proposed business combination. Stockholders may also obtain a copy of the preliminary or definitive proxy statement, once available, as well as other documents filed with the SEC regarding the proposed transactions and other documents filed with the SEC by Northern Genesis 2, without charge, at the SEC's website located at www.sec.gov or by directing a request to Northern Genesis 2.
