FORM OF PARTNER EMAIL

I hope all is well. I am reaching out to share an exciting update and make myself available to answer any questions you may have. As you may have seen in the news this morning [<https://www.wsj.com/articles/self-driving-truck-startup-embark-to-go-public-in-5-2-billion-spac-deal>], we are thrilled to announce a major milestone for Embark as we plan to go public. This milestone will be accomplished through a merger with an already publicly traded special purpose acquisition company (SPAC), Northern Genesis Acquisition Corp. II (NYSE: NGAB). We believe today’s announcement will enable Embark to further accelerate its mission of working with the freight ecosystem to bring autonomous trucks to market. Because of your importance to our work, I wanted to reach out and share some details.

We will continue to operate under the Embark name and there will be no substantive changes to our team or how we do business. As NGAB is already publicly listed, Embark will become a public company when the deal is complete, trading under a new ticker symbol "EMBK." The boards of directors of both Embark and Northern Genesis Acquisition Corp. II have unanimously approved the proposed transaction, which we expect to be consummated in the fourth quarter of 2021 subject to SEC review of certain regulatory filings, a successful shareholder vote and other customary approvals and closing conditions.

There is still work to be done in order to close this transaction. But, assuming the merger is approved and closes, it will deliver significant financial resources to accelerate Embark's strategic growth plans. With the proceeds we are raising from this transaction, we believe we will be armed with the capital necessary to accelerate and build upon our leadership position to drive our mission to build self-driving trucking technology that makes roads safer and freight transport more efficient while moving the logistics industry forward as a whole.

We are also excited to share today that former U.S. Secretary of Transportation and U.S. Secretary of Labor Elaine Chao has been appointed to Embark's Board of Directors. Secretary Chao's extensive public and private sector leadership experience will further strengthen Embark's position in the AV industry.

As we share this news today, we are grateful for the work we've accomplished together so far, and look forward to continuing our collaboration with you as we accelerate to commercialization. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to reach out to me.

Thank you,
